

JOIN POOLE CONSERVATIVES AND BE HEARD

Poole is in our hands. This year Poole Conservatives returned Robert Syms MP to Parliament with his biggest ever majority, with more votes than all the rest together.

In the local elections we won 32 seats out of 42 on Poole Council, giving us to a comfortable majority.

We have a Conservative MP, a Conservative Council, a strong Conservative Association, and four Conservative clubs where you can eat and drink and meet friends.

By joining the Poole Conservatives

- You can influence policy
- You can run for office
- You can enhance your social life

WE OPPOSED NAVITUS BAY

■ You can influence policy

Poole Conservative Councillors Mike White, Mohan Iyengar and May Haines as well as many other local people campaigned strongly for the Government to scrap its plan for a Navitus Bay wind farm.

Together with Challenge Navitus, Poole and Christchurch Bays Association and other campaigns, this won the day – the plan has been withdrawn.

We have a broad membership and welcome people from all walks of life.

■ You can run for office

Andy Garner-Watts is one of the new Conservative Councillors and represents Poole Town ward. He and his wife and children live locally and this is his first elected office. After years in the army, Andy works in secure logistics in Poole.

In his own words: "I am happy and proud to have been elected, but now I want to get stuck in and earn the trust my voters placed in me. I am sure my skills and experience will stand me in good stead as I do my duty in daily work for the residents of my ward."

Oakdale Conservative Councillors Janet Walton, who is now Leader of the Council, and Peter Adams, who was Mayor of Poole earlier this year, often visit the Poole Conservative area clubs in Parkstone, Branksome, Newtown and Oakdale.

■ You can enhance your social life

As well as providing a great platform to discuss politics, Poole Conservatives have a strong social calendar of interesting activities and opportunities to meet new friends and greet old ones.

We have a broad membership and welcome people from all walks of life. We have:

- A ladies club for informal coffee meetings
- An investment club to make the most of your money
- A Cabinet Club offering breakfasts with our MP
- A Patrons Club offering glittering social events
- A Conservative Political Forum for policy talk

Many Poole wards have committees that organise additional events. And we regularly hold open social receptions to meet and greet newcomers over a complimentary glass of wine and a buffet.
